

Title I-D Regulations and Best Practices from the District and Private Facility Perspective

Day: Tuesday, November 17, 2009
Session: 1:45 – 3:00 pm
Room: Saguario

Presenter:

Jim Lovett – James.Lovett@azed.gov
State Title I N & D Coordinator
Arizona Department of Education

Session Description:

This interactive session will provide the latest information on Title I Neglected and Delinquent monitoring, compliance, and feature best practices in the instruction of language arts and math. If you are currently involved in the instructional efforts of N&D students, please plan to attend.

How the session addresses Innovation:

This interactive session will feature the latest information on monitoring, compliance, and best practices for math and language arts.

Presenter Information:

Jim Lovett is currently the State Coordinator of the Title I Neglected and Delinquent Program at the Arizona Department of Education. Before he came to ADE in July of 2005, he was a Reading Specialist and Administrator for over 25 years. He has recently become a Qualified Assurance Reviewer for the North Central Association.

Session Materials

PowerPoint Handout

Subpart 2